Dokki is one of the most important neighborhoods of Giza. It is a lively residential and commercial neighborhood through which major roads pass through connecting the governorates of Cairo and Giza. The name Dokki is due to the presence of the Dokki family that has inhabited this area since ancient times. Dokki is considered one of the most important neighborhoods of Giza, as it is in the middle of the road leading to and from other neighborhoods in Greater Cairo. It has many streets and squares named after some Arab countries. It includes many of Cairo's main landmarks. It includes about 40 embassies.
