Quesna is distinguished as the only center that connects Menoufia with Cairo, and through it, all cars pass to enter Menoufia and also connect Menoufia with each other. Through the village of Shubra Qabala, it connects Quesna with the village of Estenha affiliated with the center of Al-Bajour, and the village of Ajhour Al-Raml, which connects the governorate of Menoufia with the governorate of Qalyubia. Quesna is the first border of Menoufia, after which it will be a city Banha, Qalyubia Governorate, and there is also the military road in Quesna that passes through Quesna, passing through the village of Quesna, the village of Bjerim, and the estate of Ali Abd al-Gawad, all the way to Barakat al-Saba, and from there to Tanta. This road was used during the war to transport equipment and ammunition. This road also reached the western province.
