Hurghada neighborhoods: It extends from the north of the city of Hurghada, specifically from the south of the El Gouna area, with a length of 22 kilometers and along the coast to the Dahar neighborhood. One of the most important features of this neighborhood is that the population is much lower than in the rest of Hurghada. On the other hand, along the coast there are many hotels that have been completed and others that have not been completed. To enjoy the attractive oriental atmosphere in this neighborhood, not now, but perhaps in the near future.
