The North Coast is one of the most important and longest coasts in the world. It is considered a distinctive tourist and entertainment destination, because it includes a large number of luxurious tourist villages, in addition to its location close to Cairo, Alexandria, and Marsa Matrouh. It has a charming view of the Mediterranean Sea, which enjoys soft white sand, clear blue water, and the absence of mountains that... The North Coast's excellent weather, especially during the summer months, attracts holidaymakers and tourists
